

GERALD W. WOMACK BIO

Gerald W. Womack is President/CEO, Womack Development & Investment Realtors (WDIR), a full-service Commercial and Residential Real Estate brokerage firm established in 1985. For the past 15 years, its corporate offices have been located at 4412 Almeda Road, Houston, Texas—conveniently within “Third Ward,” near the Mid-Town/Museum District, and the Houston Medical Center—all minutes from downtown Houston.

Womack currently serves as the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners Harris County Housing Authority.

From a young age Gerald knew that Real Estate was his calling and quickly established himself as an industry leader in inner-loop areas. Gerald Womack attended the Jesse H. Jones School of Business at Texas Southern University. A native Houstonian with over 30 year’s experience in Real Estate, Mr. Womack has set himself apart from many of his peers with his sheer knowledge of the business and expertise in both Residential and Commercial transactions. In addition to sales transactions Gerald also redevelops and manages small apartment complexes.

Under Gerald’s guidance, WDI is an industry leader providing quality, efficient and professional real estate services to all sections of the community. The firm’s mission is to continue growth through an aggressive stance and to constantly develop its business acumen.

Gerald’s proficiency and capability to adapt with both the market and technological advances has served him tremendously well with continuing to be the best in the business. Both new and longtime clients refer their family and friends to Mr. Womack because of his knowledge, professionalism, and ability to simply get the deal done.

Mr. Womack currently serves as Commissioner for the Harris County Housing Authority,

Secretary for The Mental Health and Mental Retardation Authority, Advisory Board of Unity National Bank, Federal Political Coordinator for the National Association of Realtors, Board member of Houston First, National Association of Real Estate Brokers and Board Chair, previously served as President, of the Houston Black Real Estate Association (HBREA).

A member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Mr. Womack's constant community work and outreach has been honored through numerous awards including the Harris County Chamber of Commerce's Pinnacle Award, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc.'s Dove Award, World Youth Foundation's Community Partner Champion Award, National Association of Real Estate Broker's Local Board President Award and the Harris County Council of Organizations' Trailblazer Award.

Dr. Lois J. Moore Bio

Dr. Lois Jean Moore, BSN, MED, LHD, FACHE, who was awarded an honorary doctorate from Our Lady of the Lake University, is a retired health care professional who began her career as an emergency center charge nurse at Jefferson Davis Hospital in Houston.

Dr. Moore served for more than 10 years as the president and chief executive officer of the Harris County Hospital District. Later, she was chief administrator at the University of Texas Harris County Psychiatric Center, where she was responsible for the planning and development of all functions and activities at the hospital.

Dr. Moore has been a partner of numerous organizations, is a published author and is a recipient of numerous awards. She earned her nursing diploma from Prairie View A&M's School of Nursing and later a bachelor's degree in nursing from Texas Woman's University. She also holds a master's of education from Texas Southern University.

Dr. Moore was named Chief Administrator of UTHCPC in 2000 and retired in 2013. Prior to that, she worked her way through the ranks of the public health care system, serving as a nurse and in various administrative capacities.

Dr. Moore remains very active in the community. She served on numerous boards including the American Red Cross, March of Dimes, United Way, Texas Association of Public and Non-Profit Hospitals, and the National Association of Public Hospitals. She is a Fellow of the American College of Health Care Executives and is included in Who's Who in America. She is currently a Trustee for the Harris Center for Mental Health and IDD.