IV. DUTIES OF THE COUNTY

A. Duty

County shall have no duty whatever to Special Counsel except for obligations specifically set forth in this Article IV.

B. Payment Terms

The County shall pay Special Counsel for the services it renders under this Agreement in accordance with Section III. C. The County shall reimburse Special Counsel for reasonable and actual expenses as authorized by Exhibit A in connection with the legal services, subject to the allocation of funds.

C. Taxes

The County is exempt from payment of Federal Excise and Transportation Tax and Texas Limited Sales and Use Tax. Special Counsel's invoices to the County must not contain assessments of any of these taxes. The County Attorney will furnish the County's exemption certificate and federal tax identification number to Special Counsel if requested.

D. Method of Payment

The County's standard payment term is to pay 30 days after receipt of invoice or receipt of goods or services, whichever is later.

When the payment date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or official holiday when County offices are closed and County business is not expected to be conducted, payment may be made on the following business day.

E. Disputed Payments

If the County disputes any items in an invoice Special Counsel submits for any reason, including lack of supporting documentation, the County Attorney shall temporarily delete the disputed item and pay the remainder of the invoice. The County Attorney shall promptly notify Special Counsel of the dispute and request remedial action. After the dispute is settled, Special Counsel shall include the disputed amount on a subsequent regularly scheduled invoice or on a special invoice for the disputed item only.

F. Limit of Liability

The County's duty to pay money to Special Counsel for any purpose under this Agreement is limited in its entirety by Section II of this Agreement.

G. Access to Data

The County shall, to the extent permitted by law, allow Special Counsel to access and make copies of documents in the possession or control of the County or available to it that are reasonably necessary for Special Counsel to perform under this Agreement.

The County does not, however, represent that all existing conditions are fully documented, nor is the County obligated to develop new documentation for Special Counsel's use.

V. TERMINATION

Any party may terminate this Agreement with or without cause by giving the other party thirty (30) days written notice of its intention to do so, specifying therein the effective date of such termination. Upon receipt of such notice, Special Counsel must discontinue all services in connection with the performance of this Agreement and must proceed to cancel promptly all existing orders and Agreements insofar as such orders and Agreements are chargeable to this Agreement.

As soon as practicable after notice of termination, Special Counsel must submit a statement showing in detail the services performed under this Agreement to the date of termination. Within thirty days of the receipt of said statement, the County Attorney will review this statement and approve it with any modifications that he deems necessary. Copies of all completed or partially completed documents prepared under this Agreement must be delivered to the County Attorney when and if this Agreement is terminated.

The County shall then pay the fees to Special Counsel for services actually performed, but not already paid for, in the same manner as prescribed in Section III. D. unless the fees exceed the allocated funds remaining under this Agreement.

If there is a conflict between this provision and a Court Order, the Court Order shall control.

TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT AND RECEIPT OF PAYMENT FOR SERVICES RENDERED ARE SPECIAL COUNSEL'S ONLY REMEDIES FOR THE COUNTY'S TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE, WHICH DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A DEFAULT OR BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT. SPECIAL COUNSEL WAIVES ANY CLAIM (OTHER THAN ITS CLAIM FOR PAYMENT AS SPECIFIED IN THIS SECTION) IT MAY HAVE NOW OR IN THE FUTURE FOR FINANCIAL LOSSES OR OTHER DAMAGES RESULTING FROM THE COUNTY'S TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE.

VI. RELEASE

SPECIAL COUNSEL AGREES TO AND SHALL RELEASE THE COUNTY, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, OFFICERS, AND LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES (COLLECTIVELY IN THIS SECTION THE "COUNTY") FROM ALL LIABILITY FOR INJURY, DEATH, DAMAGE OR LOSS TO PERSONS OR PROPERTY SUSTAINED IN CONNECTION WITH OR INCIDENTAL TO SPECIAL COUNSEL'S PERFORMANCE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Independent Contractor

Special Counsel shall perform its obligations under this Agreement as an independent contractor and not as an employee of the County.

B. Severability

If any part of this Agreement is for any reason found to be unenforceable, all other parts remain enforceable unless the result materially prejudices either party.

C. Entire Agreement

This Agreement merges the prior negotiations and understandings of the Parties and embodies the entire agreement of the Parties. No other agreements, assurances, conditions, covenants (express or implied), or other terms of any kind exist between the Parties regarding this Agreement.

D. Written Amendment

Unless otherwise specified, this Agreement may be amended only by written instrument executed in the same form by the County and Special Counsel.

E. Applicable Laws

This Agreement, including its validity, construction, enforcement, and interpretation shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas.

Any litigation relating to this Agreement must be filed in state court in Harris County, Texas.

F. Captions

Captions contained in this Agreement are for reference only and have no effect in construing this Agreement. The captions are not restrictive of the subject matter of any section in this Agreement.

G. Non-Waiver

If either party fails to require the other to perform a term of this Agreement, that failure does not prevent the party from later enforcing that term and all other terms. If either party waives the others breach of a term, that waiver does not waive a later breach of this Agreement.

An approval by the County Attorney, or by any other employee or agent of the County, of any part of Special Counsel's performance does not waive compliance with this Agreement or establish a standard of performance other than that required by this Agreement and by law. The County Attorney is not authorized to vary the terms of this Agreement.

H. Inspections and Audits

County representatives have the right to perform, or have performed, (1) audits of Special Counsel's books and records pertaining to representation of the County, and (2) inspections of all places where work is undertaken in connection with this Agreement. Special Counsel shall keep its books and records available for this purpose for at least three years after this Agreement terminates. This provision does not affect the applicable statute of limitations.

I. Enforcement

The County Attorney or his or her designee may enforce all legal rights and obligations under this Agreement without further authorization. Special Counsel shall provide to the County Attorney all documents and records that the County Attorney requests to assist in determining Special Counsel's compliance with this Agreement, with the exception of those documents made confidential by Federal or State law or regulation.

J. Ambiguities

If any term of this Agreement is ambiguous, it shall not be construed for or against any party on the basis that the party did or did not write it.

K. Survival

Special Counsel shall remain obligated to the County under all clauses of this Agreement that expressly or by their nature extend beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

L. Publicity

Special Counsel shall make no announcement or release of information concerning this Agreement unless the release has been submitted to and approved, in writing, by the County Attorney.

M. Parties-In-Interest

This Agreement does not bestow any rights upon any third party but binds and benefits the County and Special Counsel only.

N. Successors and Assigns

This Agreement binds and benefits the Parties and their legal successors and permitted assigns; however, this provision does not alter the restrictions on assignment and disposal of assets set out in the following paragraph. This Agreement does not create any personal liability on the part of any officer or agent of the County.

O. Assignments

Neither party shall assign, in whole or in part, any duty or obligation of performance under this Agreement, without the express written permission of the other parties, unless otherwise authorized in this Agreement.

P. Remedies Cumulative

Unless otherwise specified, the rights and remedies contained in this Agreement are not exclusive, but are cumulative of all rights and remedies, which exist now or in the future.

Q. Copies

Copies of this signed Agreement may be used in the same manner as the original Document.

R. Controlling Parts

If a conflict among the Agreement provisions and the attached Exhibits arises, the Agreement provisions control over the exhibits.

C. Legal Resources

1. Special Counsel's Use of the County Attorney's Office's Legal Resources

a. In order to reduce the County's legal costs where practicable, Special Counsel's attorneys shall make use of the legal personnel in the County Attorney's office, as well as any other personnel or facilities of the County. For example, the County's legal staff can help Special Counsel prepare discovery responses or schedule matters associated with the appearance or participation of County employees or officers. The County Attorney will assist Special Counsel in coordinating such activities.

i. Prior to undertaking a legal research project, Special Counsel shall ask the County Attorney to provide any research the County Attorney's Office has already performed regarding the legal matter Special Counsel is to handle for the County. Further, before Special Counsel undertakes a legal research project, the County Attorney's prior approval is required.

Travel expenses for lodging, meals, and out-of-town transportation shall be at reasonable rates and consistent with the County's travel policies.
