

Resolution

WHEREAS, Ric Campo will be recognized and honored at the Greater Houston Port Bureau's 93rd Annual Maritime Dinner for his steadfast commitment to improving Harris County's port region and dedicated efforts to working with industry and the community to forward Houston Ship Channel and port improvements; and

WHEREAS, Ric Campo has furthered his work on behalf of Harris County since becoming Chairman of the Port Commission of the Port of Houston Authority by leading the acceleration of Project 11, the widening and deepening of the Houston Ship Channel, through collaboration with stakeholders, community leaders, and the Army Corps of Engineers and advocating with government officials to ensure further continued economic prosperity and job growth for Harris County; and

WHEREAS, he has furthered Port Houston's commitment to conducting operations using a systematic approach to environmental management to help protect and preserve the natural environment through such projects as the switch to 100% renewable electricity and investing in electric vehicles for port operations; and

WHEREAS, Ric Campo has championed equity, diversity, and inclusion in Port Houston and furthered his commitment to these goals by leading Port Houston to establish the Minority- and Woman-Owned Business Enterprise Development Program and establishing Port Houston's first-ever Chief Business Equity Officer position as part of the Executive Leadership Team to help infuse these qualities into the Port culture; and

WHEREAS, Ric Campo is dedicated to continuing in his service as Chairman of the Port Commission of the Port of Houston Authority and to making the Houston Ship Channel community in Harris County a place of sustainable environmental and economic prosperity for the next generation of workers and residents: now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the Harris County Commissioners Court hereby proclaims August 20, 2022, as in Harris County, Texas, in appreciation for his service.

It is hereby ORDERED that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of Commissioners Court this 2nd day of August 2022.
