

Resolution

WHEREAS, we commemorate the 20th anniversary of the attacks on September 11th with those memories still painful to our hearts as our nation has traveled a long journey to recovery;

WHEREAS, one of the enduring lessons learned from 9-11 is that we must cherish and recognize those who run towards the danger to be the first to respond, protect and defend;

WHEREAS, our brave men and women who serve here in Harris County have earned our respect as they have faced down hurricanes, blackouts, budget concerns, chemical explosions, ice storms, loss of life in the line of duty, and a pandemic;
