Request Summary (Agenda Caption):

Request by Public Health Services for approval to accept an amendment to an agreement with the Department of State Health Services for contract updates for the FY 2023 Regional Local Services System/Local Public Health Services Program.

Background and Discussion:

The Department of State Health Services and Harris County Public Health have a grant contract agreement to improve and strengthen local public health infrastructure within Harris County. The amendment changes the programmatic reporting schedule.

Expected Impact:

This grant provides funds to allow HCPH to build overall departmental capacity to address public health issues through a variety of activities including enhanced public health workforce training; initiation of innovative contractual relationships and strategic partnerships; procurement and utilization of necessary clinical and nonclinical supplies and materials; and, incorporation of necessary work process improvement, as well as facility and technology-based initiatives.
