Purpose and Request:

Request by the Justice Administration Department to accept an amendment with the MacArthur Foundation to extend the Safety + Justice Challenge grant through June 30, 2021.

Background and Discussion:

Harris County is in its sixth year in participating in the Safety + Justice Challenge with the MacArthur Foundation. The County was chosen in 2016 as one of eleven jurisdictions across the United States to receive $2 million to implement strategies for justice system improvement. In 2019, we applied for a renewal grant and received $2.1 million to continue the SJC work and expand our strategies. The renewal grant period expired on December 31, 2020. MacArthur Foundation approved the request for a No Cost Extension on February 22, 2021. We are respectfully requesting approval for a no cost extension to enable the County to use unexpended grant funds in the amount of $501,279 to cover several SJC strategies including the Racial and Ethnic Equity Committee work, three community micro grants, Pretrial Services Step-Down Pilot with GPL, expanding JOY Pretrial Release Support Program.
