Request Summary (Agenda Caption):

Request by Public Health Services for approval to accept an amendment to an agreement with the Department of State Health Services to revise certain requirements in the Statement of Work for the FY 2023 Cities Readiness Initiative Program.

Background and Discussion:

The purpose of this contract is to perform activities in support of the Cities Readiness Initiative (CRI) from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in support of public health emergency preparedness.

Expected Impact:

It provides the coordination of training and resources to support Harris County's ability to respond to public health emergencies. Emergency preparedness planning and exercises help to identify gaps in emergency plans and procedures that, when addressed, will improve the readiness of Harris County.
